

Arizona Board of Appraisal Website Privacy Policy Statement

Disclaimer

None of the information at this site is an official publication of the Arizona Board of Appraisal (ABOA) or the State of Arizona; rather, it is merely representative of such official publications. Although every effort has been made to make the information provided herein accurate and timely, users should understand that errors can occur. The ABOA will not be responsible for any inaccuracies in the information. When necessary, please rely on the official version of rules, statutes, and policy. If you do discover inaccuracies, we would appreciate being notified as soon as possible so that we can correct it for others.

In addition, since the ABOA cannot guarantee protection from potential alteration or tampering of the materials on this server by outside parties, these materials do not constitute "official" versions, and they are not intended, nor can they be relied upon, to create any rights enforceable by any party in litigation with the State of Arizona. Reference herein to any specific commercial products, process or service by trade name, trademark, manufacturer, logo, or otherwise, does not necessarily constitute or imply its endorsement, recommendation, or preference by the ABOA and shall not be used for advertising or product endorsement purposes.

The documents on this server contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other public and private organizations. Please be aware that we do not control or guarantee the accuracy, relevance, timeliness, or completeness of this outside information. Further, the inclusion of links to particular items is not intended to reflect their importance, nor is it intended to endorse any views expressed or products or services offered by the author of the reference or the organization operating the server on which the reference is maintained.

ABOA Online Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting the Arizona Board of Appraisal (ABOA) website and reviewing our privacy policy. Pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-3901 et seq., all agencies of the State of Arizona shall contain a Privacy Policy. This disclosure addresses collection, use and security of and access to information that may be obtained through the use of the ABOA website. Your rights to privacy are of the utmost importance to the State of Arizona in building trust and confidence when conducting business through the internet.

On our website, the ABOA provides information that is frequently requested by the public and other information that the Board recognizes is important to the public. Our goal is to provide citizens a more convenient and efficient means with which to interact with the ABOA. If you choose not to participate in these activities, your choice will in no way affect your ability to receive benefits or services. If you prefer to apply for benefits or services in person, you may do so at either our Phoenix office.

Collection and Use of Information

The ABOA does not collect information about you unless you voluntarily participate in an activity that asks for such information. If you are merely reading, printing, or downloading information from this site, no personally identifying information will be revealed about you. Please be aware that in the State of Arizona, laws exist to ensure that state government is open and that the public has a right to access appropriate records and information possessed by the state. However, if personal information is requested on the website or volunteered by the user, state law and the federal Privacy Act of 1974 may protect it. Should you have any questions, contact the ABOA directly about the records we keep and our use of information.

The web server that hosts ABOA Online Services gathers certain information about your visit automatically in a standard log file. We use this information to identify and manage your Online Services session. This information never identifies you personally and consists of only the following items:

- ? The Internet domain (for example, "xcompany.com" if you use a private Internet access account, or "yourschool.edu" if you connect from a university's domain) from which you access the web site;
- ? The IP address (an IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you are surfing the Web) from which you access the web site; and
- ? The date and time of your access.

We also use this information to gather statistics about the amount of use the Online Services site receives. Again, we do not automatically record information about you as an individual. This information is not shared, sold, or otherwise disseminated by ABOA.

Although the ABOA website does not currently use cookies (small bits of data that a web server stores on your hard drive) to obtain information about you or track your visits to our site, future releases may necessitate their use along with other session enhancement methods. These will be thoroughly evaluated in order to determine their benefit to both the client and the service provider before being implemented. This privacy statement will also be updated to describe exactly what information is being collected and how to disable or refuse cookies.

Information You Provide

ABOA does not provide any benefits or services to the public that require entry of personal information online.

Security

The ABOA and its consultants, as developer and manager of this website, have taken several steps to safeguard the integrity of its computer systems and networks. Including, but not limited to, individual authentication, the security of transmitted data, security monitoring, auditing, and encryption of your information. Security methods and measures have been integrated into the design, implementation and day-to-day practices of the entire ABOA website.

Other External Links Disclaimer

The ABOA website has links to other websites. These may include links to websites operated by other government agencies, nonprofit organizations and private businesses. When you link to another site, you are no longer on the ABOA site and this Privacy Policy will not apply to other sites. When you link to another website, you are subject to the privacy policy of that new site.

Neither the ABOA, nor any employee of the ABOA warrants the accuracy, reliability or timeliness of any information published on this website, nor endorses any content, viewpoints, products, or services linked from this website, and shall not be held liable for any losses caused by reliance on the accuracy, reliability or timeliness of such information. Portions of such information may be incorrect or not current. Any person or entity that relies on any information obtained from this system does so at his or her own risk.

Privacy Policy Statement Is Subject To Change

This policy may be updated or revised from time to time, so please check back with the ABOA periodically in order to receive advance notice of any substantive changes to the manner in which the information you disclose on this website may be collected, used, or disseminated.
